

Name: _____

A Long Way Gone

Transitioning to Violence

In chapters 11-14, there's a transition in Ishmael. He started out as a child with a family, in disbelief about the war. Now he's a teenager, he's lost his family, and he's joined the government army. Complete the following boxes of events, result/effect they have on Ishmael, and ch.14 support.

Event: smoking marijuana, sniffing brown brown, taking more white capsules

Result/Effect:

Text Support:

Event: watching war movies, raiding rebel camps & looking at the rebels

Result/Effect:

Text Support:

Event: listening to the lieutenant's speeches and commands without question

Result/Effect:

Text Support:

Event: simulating attacks & bettering their skills by killing prisoners

Result/Effect:

Text Support: